Camp Meeting Speakers

Clarence H. Smith

Oscar Rogers

T. J. Jones

Brothers Smith and Rogers of the Illinois District will be in charge of the evening services. God has honored their ministry in various sections of the country by giving them many converts. Numbers have received the baptism of the Holy Spirit in their meetings. They come to us highly recommended as consecrated men of God and are thoroughly Pentecostal.

• Our own District ministers will be speaking in the afternoon services.

C. A. Sixth Annual Convention

June 27 28, 29

Paul Pipkin

Speakers will include Esther Mae Cooper, C.A. secretary for the Southern California District, and young people's evangelist. Miss Cooper is a talented musician as well as a gifted speaker. In addition Brother Paul Pipkin, one of our own District evangelists, will be sharing time with Miss Cooper on the Convention program. Brother Pipkin is well known in Northern California, having been actively engaged in evangelistic work for sometime.

Both of these young people are consecrated, zealous workers for God and their ministry will be of spiritual blessing to all C. A.'s.

Esther Mae Cooper

Vesper Services will be held each evening from 6 to 7 p.m. throughout the entire camp meeting. These times of inspiration and spiritual uplift will be conducted outdoors around the "Victory Circle." Rustic seating facilities will be installed and a place for a bonfire provided. The C.A. officers will be in charge and will present a different program each evening.

• Seminars for young people will be conducted the last two weeks of camp meeting from 10 to 11 a. m. These seminars will afford opportunities for open discussion, and the subjects to be dealt with will be those dealing directly with the problems of youth.

CAMP MEETING

EXTRA! EXTRA! JUST OFF THE PRESS!
"FORTHCOMING CAMP MEETING—BIG SUCCESS!"

*In faith we shout and cry aloud
Of a happy and a record crowd;*

*Of souls who've come to seek the Lord
And sing His praise in sweet accord.
Afflicted men and women, too,
Have found the Christ their healer true.*

*Other hungry souls have found
Christ their baptizer doth abound.
For He is just the same today
As years ago when He went away.*

*And best of all, He's coming soon,
It may be in July, or June,
Or yet TODAY, we cannot tell!
Can you say, "All with my soul is well?"*

*Get right with God, my friend, TO-DAY;
And then you'll say, "Away to camp
—away, AWAY!"*

*So let our prayers in FAITH abound
And on the campground we'll all be found.*

—Dorothy Boyd.

Make reservations at the camp office for the use of these facilities.

Bookstand

There will be a stock of Bibles, books, mottoes, and literature on hand which are especially chosen to meet the needs of our Pentecostal fellowship. The bookstand will be in charge of Brother C. G. Roberts who will be glad to serve you or take orders for any books you may desire.

DAY OF PRAYER

It would be well to have a special day of prayer in behalf of the District Council and Camp Meeting, and it is requested that Sunday, June 8, be set aside for this.

We are living in history-making days and a visitation of God's Spirit is needed and a fresh endowment of power to cope with the many problems facing all of God's people these days.

INTERESTING FEATURES

Children's Playground

A children's playground and nursery will be conducted this year and will be in charge of competent mothers throughout the camp meeting. Swings, slides, and teeter-totters and other needs will be provided to interest the children and to make the camp enjoyable for all.

Sunday School

No longer need those at camp meeting miss the study of the weekly Sunday School lesson though they be absent from their home assembly. Classes for all ages, under the able direction of Albert J. Lebeck as superintendent assisted by a staff of efficient teachers, will be held at 9 o'clock Sunday mornings.

Prayer Room

At the back of the platform in the main tabernacle is situated a large room dedicated to prayer. Here at any hour of the day or night may those whose hearts incline them so to do, retire for uninterrupted seeking of God and waiting upon Him. Brothers H. H. Burgess and P. C. Tacker will be in charge of the prayer room.

Orchestra

Music has found a very definite place in the hearts and lives of Pentecostal people, and instrumental music has contributed materially to the uplift and blessing of spiritual services. During the camp all those who play instruments are requested to bring them and assist in the musical program of the meetings. Homer Thompson of G.T.B.I. will be in charge.

Daily Vacation Bible School

Among the hundreds who attend camp each year are scores of children, and they, too, must have a place in the spiritual program. Special services and classes under the direction of Mrs. Bernice Mast have been planned to provide opportunity for the children to imbibe gospel truths and to be saved and filled with the Spirit. These services will be held in a large tent east of the tabernacle. A corps of workers will assist in making these meetings attractive and instructive for the junior members of our constituency.

Arts and Crafts

Handwork and construction of various articles will prove of great interest to those children especially interested in this type of expression. Brother and Sister M. H. Luce will assist in this endeavor.

ACCOMMODATIONS

W. M. C.

The Women's Missionary Council meetings which were enjoyed so much last year during camp meeting, and the year before, will be held again this year from one to two o'clock each afternoon from Tuesday to Friday in the tabernacle. The closing W.M.C. meeting will be held Friday, July 1, at 10 a. m., at which time reports will be given.

Plans are being made to have each sub-district give a program with the sectional chairman in charge. It will be interesting to know what has been accomplished in the different districts. There will also be missionaries and special speakers. The services will be interesting, instructive and spiritual. All the women on the camp-ground are urged to attend.

MRS. L. R. KEYS, Director.

MRS. R. J. THURMOND, Ass't Director.

An Oakland Church

Oakland Bethel Tabernacle is a direct answer to prayer. It came into being in the fall of 1929 because the little flock who founded it under God had no church home, and did not want to separate and individually join other churches. Their first meetings were held in Mrs. Montgomery's chapel at Beulah Heights. About that time the Lord miraculously opened the way that they could purchase the building where they are at present worshiping, located at 1421 25th Avenue.

Brother R. H. Moon was the first pastor. His ministry continued for a period of three years. At the termination of his pastorate the church called Brother J. W. Belchar, who was then leaving the United Brethren ministry to engage in a Pentecostal ministry. His stay as pastor was blessed of the Lord. Later Brother R. L. Brown was called to the pastorate. # CURRENT SIGNS

A DIGEST OF CURRENT EVENTS IN THE LIGHT OF PROPHECY—BY ALBERT J. LEBECK

Lawlessness

We are the world's most lawless nation. There are yearly in this country nearly 12,000 homicides. Previous to the present war there were approximately 300 in England—about one twelfth of our record if measured on a percentage basis in accordance with population.

And the cost of crime to this country?

Gigantic is an appropriate adjective. Fifteen billion dollars yearly. Now divide up fifteen billion dollars among our actual workers with a stabilized earning capacity and you will have approximately $300 per capita.

"Good" Movies

"Two-thirds of all pictures shown in America's theaters deal with love, crime, sex, or mystery. Murders, holdups and kidnapings are frequent, and marriage is treated lightly. Christianity is sneered at and the ministry is a joke. When we consider that ten times as many people attend the movies as go to church, we are not very proud. There are some who talk about attending a 'good' movie. Some little good might be tucked away somewhere in some movies. Likewise there is 'good' in a garbage can, but who would want to eat it?"—Brethren Missionary Herald.

Bibles for Defense

Always the world's best seller, the Bible is now regarded as essential equipment by the War and Navy Department for every soldier, sailor and marine in our national defense.

The Gideons (the Christian Commercial Men's Association of America), long famous for their great work in distributing Bibles through hotel rooms, have been permitted by the War and Navy Departments, according to Miss Nellie F. Dewar, secretary, to assist in supplying 1,300,000 copies of the New Testament and Psalms and a million more each year for the next four years—over five million in all. The Gideons have not hesitated to grasp this unparalleled opportunity for the spread of the Gospel.

The Bibles distributed to men of the Navy and Marine Corps will be bound in blue cloth, except those for members of the Navy stationed in tropical waters which will be bound in white. The Bibles for distribution to the Army will be bound in Khaki cloth.

Besides the New Testament and the Psalms, the books will include 16 pages of songs, hymns and spiritual helps. The books will be printed on high grade Bibles paper and bound securely as they must be for use in the service. They will be quality books in every respect, yet they will cost only 25c each, except the chaplain's copy which will cost more.

Dogs

There are 1,134,000 dogs registered in the American Kennel Club whose aggregate value is placed above $500,000,000. The total amount annually spent on pedigree dogs is $150,000,000, while it is supposed that the care and provision for these dogs costs over $600,000,000 annually, about twice as much as we give annually to foreign missions.

The Lamb of God

By HATTIE HAMMOND

(Excerpts of a sermon preached at the First Pentecostal Church of Oakland, March 23, 1941, and stenographically recorded.)

"Behold the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world" (John 1:29).

John the Baptist was ministering under the anointing of the Holy Spirit at the River Jordan when he saw the Christ coming and approaching him. Suddenly it seemed that the Word became flesh and life, and John cried, "Behold the Lamb of God which beareth away the sin of the world!"

I wonder if John knew what he was saying when he introduced Christ as the Lamb of God. I doubt if he had ever thought of this previous to this time. But when he utters these words, Jesus immediately accepts that challenge from God and asks to be baptized, thus testifying to His will to become the Lamb of God. His ordained ministry was to bring God to the people and to bear the sins of the people away on Calvary. God had given Him thirty years to acquaint Himself with the human nature He had been confined to and with the limitations of the body which had become His temple. And now by being baptized He was letting three worlds know that He would fulfill the ministry for which He had come into the world to do.

The heavens cannot contain God when His Son identifies Himself with His work—the Cross. At this time God must needs speak out of heaven, "This is My beloved Son in whom I am well pleased." He knew it was the voice of His Father bearing witness to the stand He was taking, that He was willing to become the Lamb of sacrifice for a needy world.

Why didn't John say, "Behold your King"? Because the Holy Spirit makes no mistakes. Before Jesus could possibly be the King, He must be the Lamb. The Holy Spirit put Jesus in His proper role at that time. His holy ministry among men was the ministry of the Lamb. He had come from the glory of His Father for no other purpose than to bear away the sin of the world.

Jesus knew that His place at that time was not as King. He had come to be the Lamb. He could only receive that which belonged to the life of a Lamb. As He walked the earth He must be dependent, weak, shorn and humble. He must take on the Lamb's nature. And we see Him walking, moving throughout His earthly life, taking that place, as God's Lamb.

Those people who wanted to make Him king could not understand the ministry of the Lamb. Their only interpretation of Him was in the line of their own "king complex." Israel wanted her own place back among the nations. They expected Jesus would restore them to their original place of leadership, but Jesus had not come to exalt one single nation; He had come to lift fallen humanity and to restore it to right relationship with God. Jesus could not take the place which they desired Him to take. He was then a King without a kingdom, a Shepherd without sheep. He was the Head of the Church without a body. And there was only one way for Him to have that church and those sheep, and that was to die for them.

When the time came for the Lord Jesus to continue with His ministry in teaching His disciples, some of them He called to Himself. To others He gave them their desire and sent them away with mighty power, but still they went away. They went with the power and the ministry He gave them, but He continued on with the twelve, always carrying His cross. That wooden cross was not the only one He bore. He carried a cross from the day He was born. He was misunderstood from the first. No recognition was given Him; no understanding from anyone. He was continually taking the place of the Lamb slain.

When the seventy returned they were very joyous because of the wonderful results of their work. They said, "Lord, even the demons are subject unto us through Thy name." And when Jesus heard the report of the meeting, He said, "Do not rejoice because of that, but rather rejoice that your names are written in heaven." Where were their names in heaven? "In the Lamb's book of life" (Rev. 21:27).

We take things from hymn books instead of taking them from the Bible. We sing about having a crown. A crown does not interest me; I can buy a crown. Someone says, "Give your heart to Jesus and you'll have a mansion up there." "A mansion would not interest me," a person might reply. But if they tell me my name will be written in the Lamb's book of life if I give my heart to Him, I know that that means I am heir to the nature and the life and the glory of the Lamb. I am heir to what He is. I am made a member of the Lamb family, and that would satisfy any heart reaching out for spiritual reality.

If you belong to the Jones family here on earth; if your name is Jones and it is recorded in the family Bible of the Jones family—you can understand the other members of that family. The Joneses understand each other because they all have the same nature and characteristics. The things that are hard for anyone else to understand about the Joneses, they understand about each other. And if you are a member of the Brown family, the Joneses cannot understand you for they cannot understand the Brown family. But the Brown family get along beautifully for there is an understanding among them.

The rest of the world cannot understand the Lamb family. They say, "What in the world are you crying about now?" They cannot understand why you are crying but I know why you are weeping and I say, "Weep on, sister, and have a good time." They say, "Why do people shout?" They cannot understand because they are not partakers of the same nature; they do not belong to the Lamb family.

We all have the same heavenly Father, and if we belong to Him we are partakers of the same family nature. Whether Jones or Brown, we all belong to the Lamb family.

Rejoice! But do not rejoice over external things, not even over signs and miracles and wonders and the things that people often think are so marvelous. These things do happen, and thank God for His manifestation, but let us get away from the things that relate to Christ. When we find Him and become acquainted with Him, we are through trying to be satisfied with outward things. Give us the Christ with all He is, in His loveliness and in His divine nature!

The VOICE of the District Superintendent

"Workers together with Him."

Camp meetings have held an important place in the history of Christianity in America. All along the eastern seaboard of our country one may find camp meeting grounds which were the scenes of mighty visitations of God in the early days of our country. As civilization found its way westward the camp meeting idea accompanied the development of these United States and not far removed from each new frontier was found this typically American institution. Today, all over our country are found these spots of spiritual refreshing, these Elims where are found "twelve wells of water, and threescore and ten palm trees." In tabernacles, tents, and brush arbors God's people meeting together for mutual help and blessing create welcome oases in the desert. Those who, like David, cry out "As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God," find their thirst slaked and their souls enriched through the camp meeting.

Why did our forefathers in this nation lay aside their work, load up the buggy and the surrey with provisions and the family and attend the services of a camp meeting? Because they realized, as we need to realize anew in this generation, that man does not live by bread alone. If those of a comparatively better day felt their need of these special times of refreshment from the presence of the Lord, how much greater is our need today when we find ourselves "in a dry and thirsty land where no water is." Surrounded on every side by the devil and all his works, living in days when evil men and seducers are waxing worse and worse, when men are lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God, it becomes the saints of God to come apart from the cares of this life and rest awhile at the feet of the Master. There is no better place for this purpose than a good old-fashioned camp meeting; a place to which to go for the express purpose of seeking after God until He come and rain upon us from on high.

By the grace of God we are expecting this year's camp meeting to be one of the best we have ever had. We are earnestly praying that it shall be so. Definite plans have been made to provide a spiritual program, not only for the adults, but also for our young people and the children, throughout the entire three weeks of the camp. It is hoped that many will find it possible to stay for the entire time. It is our desire that all who attend will be so quickened that they shall carry the revival spirit with them back to their assemblies and kindle revival fires there. It is our hope that all our preachers shall be able to spend ample time on the camp ground during the three weeks so that their souls shall be refreshed and encouraged and that they may return to their fields of labor with new vision and zeal.

Just here let me say a word especially to our churches. The writer is well aware of the fact that some churches are loathe to allow their pastor to be away from his church during camp meeting. They claim that during this time attendance tends to go down. We grant this but we maintain that this temporary diminution is more than offset by the blessings received by both pastor and people who find it possible to spend three weeks on the camp ground. Any church is better off in the end for making it possible for their pastor to attend the camp meeting. Of course this calls for a magnanimous spirit on the part of our churches but God blesses such a spirit.

A glance at the announcement of speakers and plans for this year's camp meeting will show that God's table is going to be richly spread for young and old. In addition to our splendid young people's and children's workers of our own constituency we are to be privileged to have some of God's choice servants as our special speakers. The Bible teacher for our morning services needs no introduction to many hundreds of our people. Brother T. J. Jones formerly of London, England, and now Dean of Glad Tidings Bible Institute, will expound the Word of God daily. The evening services will be in charge of Brothers Smith and Rogers of the Illinois District. God has honored these consecrated souls by giving them many converts and many have received the Baptism of the Spirit in their meetings. They come to us well and highly recommended as real men of God who are thoroughly Pentecostal. Each afternoon we shall have the privilege of hearing from God's servants of our own district fellowship and from visiting ministers.

It is expected the Christ's Ambassadors Convention to be held at the end of the District Council sessions of the first week will be one to long remember. The special speakers will be Sister Esther Mae Cooper, Secretary of the Southern California C. A.'s and also young people's evangelist and Brother Paul Pipkin, a member of our own District whom God is using in a most blessed way.

In the Northern California and Nevada District we have approximately 480 ministers and 167 churches. Some of our churches are large, some are small, but taken together we have thousands of members. We need the camp meeting. It is a definite asset to the District. It makes a contribution of which nothing else can take the place. Let us, then, support it by our prayers and by our attendance. "There shall be showers of blessing" and we want you to get your share.—LELAND R. KEYS.

FLECTION OF DISTRICT PRESBYTERS

"Nominations for District Presbyters shall be made by each section at a special meeting of the resident ministers of the section who shall be members of the Northern California and Nevada District Council, and the delegates regularly elected by the affiliated assemblies of the section. Nomination shall be by secret ballot. Voting shall continue until one nominee shall receive a majority of votes cast. These nominations from the various sections shall be forwarded to the District Superintendent not later than one month prior to the convening of the District Council when these nominations shall be submitted to the Council in session for their ratification."—Pg. 14, Section 2, Paragraph 2, 1940 District Minute Book.

I Want to Know . . .

Send Questions to GLAD TIDINGS, Box 398, St. Helena, Calif.

(In responding to the invitation to conduct this Question and Answer Column, I wish to state clearly that the author will not attempt to speak for the District Council or GLAD TIDINGS. The opinions expressed will be his own and will not necessarily reflect the opinions of the Council ministry.—W. T. GASTON.)

Q.—Is it all right to believe, as some outstanding leaders teach, that all Christians are baptized with the Holy Spirit at conversion?

A.—The position of this school is well stated by Boys: "Believers converted after Pentecost are just as really endowed with the indwelling Spirit as those who actually partook of the Pentecostal blessing at Jerusalem . . . nor are we to understand that this is any exceptional, occasional, special or more advanced experience, but simply the condition of everyone who is a child of God."

It is difficult to see how anyone with an open Bible and any degree of spiritual understanding, could insist that average, unspiritual, half-alive believers in this luke-warm age are, nevertheless, endowed with a like experience to those early heroes who turned the world upside down with their exploits of faith; whose burning zeal moved them to challenge a hostile world, and conquer; whose white-heated love and consecration unto death, still provide the challenge and inspiration to victorious, dynamic, Christian life and service.

Even a casual examination of the Scriptures will reveal that the baptism with the Holy Spirit is not given to sinners and worldlings, but to believing disciples. John 14:15-17; Acts 2:16-18.

The outstanding purpose of this Spirit baptism is to empower saints to preach and witness (Luke 24:46-49; Acts 1:8). The Pentecostal baptism with the Holy Spirit was a baptism of power (Grk., dunamis), a mighty on-fall of the Spirit, attended by certain manifestations, greatly eschewed in our day by those who insist that conversion and baptism are synonymous. For reference I cite the book of Acts, with special reference to chapters 2, 8, 10, 11 and 19.

Q.—Since the Holy Spirit is a person, how can anyone have more or less of Him?

A.—Personality is defined as that which constitutes, distinguishes, or characterizes a person. It is hard for us to conceive of personality apart from a material body, but who has not been made conscious that a person may project his personality over a great audience or over the world by radio? There is that part of man that has intelligence, volition, feeling or emotion, yet is invisible and incorporeal. When we think of the invisible and ineffable God whom "the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain," all-wise, all-loving, all-powerful, where is the individual with full capacity for the full impact of His infinite fullness? It would seem that to Jesus alone was the Spirit given without measure (John 3:34). "But unto everyone of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ" (Eph. 4:7). "Drink deeply of God's Spirit" (Eph. 5:18 Wey.).

Q.—Do all born-again believers share the presence of the Spirit?

A.—Yes. All God-quickened believers share a common life. "It is the Spirit that quickeneth." "The Spirit giveth life." "By one Spirit are we all baptized into one body."

Q.—Is it scriptural to believe as some do that one may be converted and have the spirit of Christ without having the Holy Spirit?

A.—No. In my opinion certain theologians are responsible for much loose thinking concerning the Godhead. There is no scriptural warrant for using first, second and third in referring to the adorable Trinity. God is essentially and eternally one. Since this unity is both essential and eternal, no one can have the Father without the Son or the Son without the Father, or either without the Holy Spirit. "There is one Spirit" by and through whom the sons of men experience the Infinite in any measure (Eph. 4:4). Read carefully John 14:16-23. Note also how these terms are used interchangeably by the inspired apostle.

SUNDAY SCHOOL News

MRS. BERNICE MAST

District Sunday School Representative, Morgan Hill, Calif.

TEACHERS AND WORKERS

In checking over the 1940 Sunday School reports which I have received, I am happy to pass on an encouraging word concerning growing interest in the District. The majority of schools have shown at least some increase in attendance over 1939. Quite a number have expressed a desire for teacher training and suggestions for increased attendance, as well as means of spiritual growth throughout their schools. We praise God for this.

But here it is May of 1941, and there can be and should be, much more accomplished this year than in 1940. I trust that all of our teachers and officers are vitally interested in making "strides" for God, "redeeming the time for the days are evil"; not only interested, but actually doing things. May God help you and give you wisdom. Don't let your school be left out in this forward move for God's kingdom and souls.

PROBLEM NO. 2

Building Attendance

There are a number of ways to accomplish this important part of our Sunday School activity, keeping in mind, of course, that merely large attendance is not the most important thing nor can we judge a school entirely by it. Nevertheless it is generally the beginning of things as far as progress is concerned.

Because we are not favorable toward mushroom growth in Sunday Schools, we are not going to give you some fantastic suggestion for a spectacular type of contest, such as a number have tried, but rather a simple recipe for substantial growth.

Consideration must first be given, however, to what you already have. Be sure that what you have as a school is capable of holding and interesting those you hope to gain in your boost for attendance, otherwise you will be playing a losing game. You will lose them as fast as you gain them for the simple reason that Sunday School is not compulsory. If they don't like it, they don't have to stay. But a fit Sunday School home is entirely another subject so we must not go any deeper into that at present, but it is one of the "first things."

Judging through experience as well as observation, there is really a workable method of building attendance. Here it is:

Take a systematic Sunday School census of your community (someone has suggested that a couple of Bible School students be secured to do this) so that you may know exactly from which homes your growth must come. Cards for such a census may be obtained from our Gospel Publishing House at Springfield, Mo.

Advertise your school freely during this period of census taking so that the community can see that you are alive and working for God and their good. There are a number of ways to do this.

As soon as your census is complete make note of the prospective members for your school and call in those homes; not just once but a number of times, building up their confidence in you and your school. This must be done prayerfully and tactfully by workers with a burden and a vision.

It is well to provide ways and means of transportation for children that live a distance from the church. A volunteer transportation committee is of great service where there is no Sunday School bus.

As soon as a new family moves to your community, your school should be the first to contact them, welcome them and invite them to Sunday School.

Absentees should be always carefully followed up by faithful teachers.

Sell this simple recipe to your Sunday School staff and go to work. It is bound to bring results. And it is well to get busy at once on such a "building program" to prevent the "summer slump" in your Sunday School.

CHRIST'S AMBASSADORS

OUR SUPERINTENDENT WRITES . . .

Dear Christ's Ambassadors:
"May your tribe increase."

I am thankful for this opportunity to open my heart to you. Nothing thrills my soul quite so much as to see a great crowd of young people—eager, questioning, striving, achieving youth. The years of adolescence are especially wonderful. They are years of mental, physical, and sometimes spiritual upheaval to be sure, but how wonderful they are as life unfolds to youth. It is during these critical years that choices are made which affect all of later life. It is said that what a person does for himself physically during these years affects all of later life physically. It is true also in the spiritual realm. A godly youth usually presages a godly middle life and old age.

I love youth because their eager enthusiastic spirit is infectious. I love youth because of their vision; because of the castles which they build in the air. Without these castles in the air there will probably be castles nowhere else. G. Campbell Morgan once said, "God have mercy on the boy or girl who never dreams dreams or sees visions."

A crowd of young people is inspiring because of the tremendous possibilities inherent in such a group; possibilities of tremendous good and usefulness if the right choices are made and the consecration to Christ is real, deep and uncompromising.

One is often amazed at the abilities and achievements of youth. Mozart played the piano and composed at the age of four. When he was six and his sister ten they went on a concert tour all over Europe. Joseph Hofmann the pianist was known all over Europe as an accomplished musician at the age of ten. Yehudi Menuhin started playing the violin at the age of three. He made his debut as soloist with the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra when he was seven. His sister, Hepzibah, was an accomplished pianist almost as early as Yehudi. All pianists know something of Rachmaninoff's Prelude in C sharp Minor. It has been the hope and the despair of many a valiant soul. Would it surprise you to know that this thrilling composition was written during his student days?

This is an age of youth. Youth is pursuing and achieving in every conceivable realm of activity. Youth have played a great part in the work of Christ. In our Assembly of God fellowship many of our most splendid workers, pastors, and evangelists are of C. A. age. Should a detailed history of our movement be written it would be replete with many instances of young people who so yielded their lives to God that they were marvelously used in the work of the kingdom. Consecrated youth have built churches, have gone to the far-flung corners of the earth and have labored for Christ in positions of trust both at home and abroad. Some of our own C. A.'s have had the privilege of carrying this blessed Gospel to those who have never heard of Christ and of translating portions of the Bible into their own language.

In the light of these achievements of youth Paul's words to Timothy seem most apropos when he says to young Timothy, "Let no man despise thy youth."

We appreciate the Christ's Ambassadors in the life and activities of our assemblies. A church without young people is dead indeed. I don't know of a minister who cares to pastor such a church, and certainly most people do not care to long remain where youth is absent. You see so much depends upon youth; it is the church of tomorrow.

A few years ago while on vacation the writer dropped into the Sunday morning service of a denomination quite close to our own movement in many ways. The songs were sung, but the voice of youth was absent. The preaching was Biblical and sincere but there were no young and eager faces in that audience. The elderly people sat unmoved. Life was conspicuously absent from the service. It was a depressing atmosphere. I should like to have stood up in that service and shouted, "What this church needs is youth—eager, inquisitive, high-spirited, responsive and inspiring youth!"

Young people can be one of the greatest assets of any assembly. There is no "young people's problem" where the youth are consecrated to God, filled with the Spirit, and seeking only that God be glorified. We are dependent upon youth; they are the rising church.

It is not too much to state that the spirituality of our young people today will have

Intermediates, Special notice: A very special favor is being granted us this year, that of a place all our own, a schedule of our own, and a program adaptable to our own age. Brother Kenneth Goode has kindly consented to assist us in making this a banner year for you young folks. His program includes many different and interesting things along with special recreational periods; all of which will go to make your stay at Camp worth while and enjoyable.

"But ye are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ he is none of his" (Rom. 8:9). How natural and restful the language of inspiration! These Roman believers have "Christ in them." "The Spirit of God" dwells in them, so also does "the Spirit that raised Christ from the dead." And this, if we let the author be consistent with himself, refers to one and the self-same all-glorious, all-comprehensive "Holy Spirit of God" (Rom. 8; Eph. 4).

much to do with the spirituality of our churches tomorrow. A great responsibility rests upon our young people.

Youth and more mature age need each other. Each acts as a wholesome balance on the other. The older folks need the eager progressive spirit of young people to save them from slowing down to a stalemate. On the other hand the young people need the conservatism of the older folks to save them from the pitfalls into which youthful impetuosity might lead them. Both have their place to fill and each is tremendously important in the life of any assembly.

Your pastor is depending upon you. He counts you among his greatest blessings. The Christ's Ambassadors can be of tremendous help in the various departments and activities of the church.

God bless you. We appreciate you. We believe in youth!—LELAND R. KEYS.

G.T.B.I. NEWS

Spring is full upon us now in Glad Tidings Bible Institute. Easter vacation over, the school now plunges into the last hour of activities and duties as it puts the finishing touches on the monuments it has been creating in our lives. The students may now look back to see the structures of "grace and knowledge" they have been building with a note of satisfaction and then look again with a sigh at the rapidly narrowing gap between now and then. The instructors, too, begin to thumb through the clean portions of the textbooks, look doubtfully at us, and say, "By this time we should have been—." Which all goes to say that time flies.

Easter has come and gone with three big services in the Temple. Inasmuch as the resurrection of Christ is the very seal of the Christian's hope, we had worked hard and willingly in the choir to "make His praise glorious." And a soul-stirring experience is the choir practice.

This term of school has gained the just name as a progressive year in the interests of the school and Temple. One of the improvements hailed by all was the change made a short time ago of the Sunday morning fellowship service in the west chapel, to a regular worship service held in the main auditorium with the choir in attendance, and preaching. Those of you familiar with the buildings will be interested also to learn of a new rest room in the Temple and some other improvements in the kitchen and dining room of the Institute.

We are happy to say that Evangelist Paul Pipkin is now with us, having started a week's campaign on April 20, designated as a Young People's Revival. We are surely looking for the blessing of the Lord to rekindle and brighten all our lights of testimony for the Lord with new zeal and consecration.

It seems as if many of our thoughts now are turning to that eventful day, June 21. Assignments to be finished, annuals (now on the way to the press) to come out, projects to complete, arrangements for summer to make, and the dozen and one preparations for graduation itself that will tend to keep us all, especially the seniors, from spending too much time thinking wistfully of just what it will be like on June 22 when the last good-byes have been said and the dear faces are really gone.—Horace McCracken.

MISSIONS

• Sailing

Brother and Sister John Kennedy will sail from New York on May 10 for Africa by the way of the Egyptian S. S. El Nil. Those who are assisting in securing the necessary supplies are requested to send the articles to them in care of the Mizpah Missionary Home, 1003 Summit Ave., New York City. They are yet in need of the following: a portable organ, metal guitar, tambourines, 50 yards of outing flannel for flannel board work, carpenter tools, and a mimeograph machine. They would also like to make mention that they have an electric portable White sewing machine for sale for $20.00; also two charts of the late Dr. Frederick Childe, one of Daniel and Revelation for $25.00, and the other, "Rightly Dividing the Word of Truth," priced at $50.00. These articles may be secured from Lloyd Kennedy, 206 Howth St., San Francisco.

Brother and Sister Herman Winkleman, who formerly pastored in this District, are returning to their field of labor, the Samoan Islands. They left San Francisco April 29 on the S. S. Monterey.

• Fiji Islands

"We are glad to report victory," write Brother and Sister Heeteby. "Our hearts were made glad two Sundays ago when two young Ellis Island lads gave their hearts to the Lord, and although they live a good distance out of town, yet they have been coming to the services regularly. Last week we experienced a real hurricane in Suva. Wind was over 100 miles per hour, toppling over many beautiful trees, unroofing houses, tearing down electric and telephone wires. God spared our home from damage."

• Alaska

Pastor and Mrs. A. L. Calame of Wrangell report progress in the building program which has been temporarily held up until minor formalities pertaining to the purchasing of the lot can be cleared up. The Junior Church started the first of the year is proving to be a blessing and well worth while.

• Hawaii

Sister Bernice Strickland is improving steadily in health. At the present time she is in Kona, about one hundred miles from Hilo. Sister Jane Horino who has been assisting in the work since last summer, is returning to Los Angeles where she will be laboring among the Japanese.

LAMB OF GOD

John, in writing of the things that Jesus revealed unto him, declared: "And I beheld, and lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain" (Rev. 5:6). The Lamb is all the glory!

"And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?" This meant it was the time of the administering of judgment. The archangel could not open the book and administer judgment for he had never tasted this world with its sin. The angels all stepped back for they knew nothing of sin. But Jesus had been here on this earth; He had become sin for us; He had tasted of the dregs of the cup and had poured from His broken heart His love and His life for the people who were sold unto sin. Jesus alone is worthy. All heaven was willing to fall back while Jesus takes the book, and the worship of heaven begins.

The song of the redeemed is a song of worship of the Lamb that had been slain. "Blessing, and honor, and glory, and power, be unto Him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever." And the Bride sings, "Hallelujah!" And the elders say, "Hallelujah!" And the multitude cry, "Hallelujah!"

Now we are hindered in our worship because of the limitations of this flesh, but when we shall see Him we shall cast our crowns at His feet. The Lamb will be all the glory in Emmanuel's land!

Friend, if your name has not yet been written down, there is still room on the pages of the heart of Christ for your name to be inscribed there. Precious in His sight is the one who has been redeemed by His blood and has been made heir to the nature of the Lamb.
